

For immediate release:
March 11, 2010
Colonial Heights, VA

CHARTS SPRING WORKDAY TO BE HELD MARCH 27, 2010

Louis L. Johnson, Chairman of CHARTS, announced today that there will be a spring workday on Saturday March 27, 2010 from 9:00 am until noon at the site. Interested citizens can assemble at Roslyn Landing Park. Major work tasks include continuing to clear and make usable a special observation area along the River, clearing brush and dead vegetation in an area near Roslyn Landing Park and picking up litter and debris along a large pond and other related activities.

Please bring appropriate work clothes, gloves and tools such as rakes, shovels, chain saws etc. to assist in this effort. The City of Colonial Heights will also provide equipment and light refreshments..

The first phase of the trail along the Appomattox River was completed last September along with a small boat launch at Roslyn Landing Park. Phase 2 of the trail is scheduled to be bid out this spring and will continue along the river to the I-95 bridge.

For more information please contact:

George W. Schanzenbacher, AICP
Director, Department of Planning and Community Development
(804) 520-9275
schanzenbacherg@colonial-heights.com